Kile's Korner

Greetings once again from my heart to yours. I am writing this in the wake of a tragic suicide bombing in Syria that really hit close to home for Ruth and me. You may have heard from our posts about Captain Jon that he was wounded severely by a bomb and several of the men and women under his command were killed. Through all this, his wife has been so positive, sharing his baby steps back to health. He lost one eye and it looks like he going to lose sight in the other too. But through it all, she has found positive things that God is doing. With that as my springboard, I would like to share this devotion with you.

"Follow me one step at time. That is all I require of you. in fact, that is the only way to move through this space/time world. You see huge mountains looming, and you start wondering how you're going to scale those heights. Meanwhile, because you're not looking where you're going, you stumble on the easy path where I am leading you now. As I help you get back on your feet, you tell me how worried you are about the cliffs up ahead. But you don't know what will happen today, much less tomorrow. There may be an easier path to travel but keep your mind on the present. Walk by faith, not by sight, trusting Me to open up the way before you." (Enjoying Peace in His Presence, Sarah Young, Feb. 3, 2019)

The sweet little wife of our army boy has shown me so much. In the midst of uncertainty, you can and need to look at the positive things in life. Keep your eyes on Him in the midst of the storms in life.

Once again, I would like to thank you all for what you're doing for the Kingdom with your willing heart, talents, and time.

One more thing: Our office has informed us that our bank account is low. We depend entirely on dues and contributions to keep the wheels turning. Please consider giving a little extra this year to help make the ROAM ministry go forward.

God bless you all. Have fun and be safe.

Ways to Support the ROAM Ministry

As you know, ROAM is a donation-based ministry. There are several ways, other than annual dues, to financially support ROAM.

- Check out our annual Christmas Wish List.
 - If you are interested in buying items (shirts, hats, mugs) with the ROAM logo on them, you should check out our shop on Café Press. www.cafepress.com/roamers. ROAM makes a little bit off each sale.
 - Amazon Smile. Go to smile.amazon.com, log in with your regular Amazon login, select RVs On A Mission as the charity you wish to support, and make your purchases like you normally do on Amazon. .5% of sales on select items will be sent to ROAM.
 - Donations. You can give any amount you want on our secure Giving Page.

Meet Alan and Glenda Miner

Alan grew up in California and Glenda in Kansas. They met while students at John Brown University in Arkansas and are proud to call Northwest Arkansas their home. They retired from engineering (Alan) and teaching (Glenda) in 2014 and wanted to travel with a purpose.

In 2016, they did two short term volunteer projects with the Church of the Nazarene. They taught ESL (English as a Second Language) at the Nazarene Seminary in Costa Rica for 4 1/2 months, and also worked alongside and taught ESL to Nazarene church members in St. Petersburg, Russia for 4 1/2 months.

Alan and Glenda had seen pamphlets about ROAM displayed at a Nazarene District Assembly and thought it sounded interesting but didn't know anyone who was actually doing this ministry until their good friends Harry and Judy Palmer joined ROAM. The Palmers had a great experience at Bonita Park Camp in New Mexico. Since then, Alan and Glenda have met several others from their area who are ROAMers. Last year they decided to make the commitment to the ROAM ministry.

The Miners are currently volunteering at the Lake Placid Camp and Conference Center in Lake Placid, FL. Last spring, they volunteered at Salyer Lake Camp and Conference Center near Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Alan and Glenda feel both experiences have been life enriching; physical work tempered by spiritual growth and emotional well-being as they work together with others to be a blessing wherever they ROAM!

Represent ROAM at District Events

Would you be willing to represent ROAM at a district event on your home district? Or maybe you are traveling this summer and could spend a day or two at a district event near you. Nazarene District Assemblies, NMI Conventions, and Camp meetings run from April through August across the country. Any of these events could be great opportunities to get the word out about the ROAM ministry by manning a table of materials.

If you would like to help, please contact the ROAM Regional Representative for that district and let them know you would like to help.

Lake Placid Camp and Conference Center

By Bill and Kathy Mark

It has been a very busy fall here at LPC3. Joan and George Arndt are seen frequently. Joan in the laundry room and George working with recycling. Bill worked with the staff on buildings and grounds while Kathy felt right at home baking.

LPC3 hosted the district Pastors and wives retreat at the end of October. Can we say a Flamboyant pumpkin patch was fun?

Then we moved into November and December with the return of Dale and Leah Rector and the arrival of John and Kathy Carlton. Leah and Kathy added some seasonal touches to the gate area while Dale and Bill set up the nativity. John has been working with the staff and Kathy Carlton has been working on the landscape and all is looking great.
