Kile's Korner

Ruth and I just returned from our NMI and District Assembly. It was a jam-packed time with lots of encouraging things happening around the district and mission field. We had a guest speaker, Bob Broadbooks (USA and Canada Regional Director). He said, "The church without broken people is a broken church." Another quote was from the director of a charitable organization on our district called "Little Lambs." She said, "Need has no zip code." Wow. How true both statements are.

In our ministry with ROAM, we meet people all over this great nation that are broken and in need of the Savior. There are people that are hurting and without hope. The Easter season reminds us that there is hope after death, but also for the living. Our mission here on earth is to direct people to the cross, to Jesus. Whether we realize it or not, people are watching our lives. Are they seeing Jesus in us? Let's strive to let our lives shine for our risen Lord.

Thanks for being willing to give of yourselves for the Kingdom. As you take on your assignments, remember we are ambassadors for Jesus. What an honor that is!

Have fun and be safe.
Ed

Camp Good News – Hawthorne, Florida

Camp Good News is one of our newest projects and adds another “warm-weather” place to serve during the winter months. It is a small camp that specializes in day camps for children ages 6-12. It has limited overnight housing but does host some smaller retreats.

Director Steve Westbrook has a passion for spreading the Good News to campers through the Word and also through hands-on adventures in nature. Nestled among the lakes and trees of northern Florida, the camp is a beautiful place to serve through ROAM.

While there this winter, ROAM volunteers worked on many projects, including preparing the waterfront, the waterslide, the playground equipment and the shooting range. They took down several trees and gathered and burned brush. Lots of painting and power-washing was done, as well.

If you would like to know more about this newest project, contact any of the ROAMers who worked there this winter – as pictured in blue shirts – Lisa & George Weeks, Ed Kile, Bob & Millie Coward, and Ruth Kile. We enjoyed working together, worshipping together, and of course eating out together!

Life's richness is usually equal to one's investment in others.
