

Floyd and Maryanne Davis

Floyd and Maryanne were married October 26, 1996. To this union Maryanne brought 2 sons and 2 daughters and Floyd brought 3 sons and 1 daughter. We have 17 grandchildren and 2 great-grandchildren.

Floyd grew up on an irrigated farm in Grandview, WA. He worked at several jobs following school. These included shipping and receiving, working as part of 4 man crew building and remodeling homes, and a for-real cowboy in charge of a large herd of cattle. In 1976 he went to work for Pendleton Grain Growers in the grain division. There his duties included operation and maintenance of elevators, buying and selling grain, dispatching trucks, operating and maintenance of trucks. Floyd has been a Sunday school teacher, board member, and youth leader.

Maryanne also grew up on farm in Grandview. She graduated with RN and BS from UPS in 1964. She worked in nursing for about 30 years until retirement in 2008. She also worked on our grape farm and dairy. Her work experience includes hospital, home health, hospice, and teaching community home health. Maryanne also taught Sunday class, did church club work, VBS, Moppets, child evangelism as well as home schooling, piano playing, painting murals and walls, cleaning, yard work and drywall.

Together we are active in Work and Witness, ROAM, and our local church in St. Maries.
