

Camp Arrowhead

Ben and Kimbre Birdwell

Because we travel with our young kids, this has been a great place for us, especially during the COVID pandemic. Plenty of freedom and space.

The Porters have been outstanding hosts, and they run a good operation. They have a to-do list and need help to get things accomplished so it has been a good match.

We were able to paint the interior of the tabernacle, spread gravel, work on road and parking lot improvements, deep clean the kitchen, and assist in the office.
