

Dave and Cheryl Lampton

Dave and Cheryl Lampton live in Portage, Indiana, and attend Highland, Indiana, Church of the Nazarene. They have three children (two girls and a boy) and five grandchildren (three girls and two boys).

Dave and Cheryl are high school sweethearts who were married on August 6, 1966, shortly after Dave graduated from Olivet Nazarene College (now University) with a double major in English and History and a minor in Education.

Dave was a middle school teacher for 39 years before retiring in 2005. He spent all but two years in the same school district. Since retiring (?), Dave has substituted almost daily in the Portage School Corporation. He is still passionate about ministering to young adolescents.

Cheryl worked as a secretary until their daughter was born. She then became a stay-at-home mom who also had a home daycare with as many as seven children besides her own three. When her youngest child entered high school, she returned to the work force. Her last eight years were spent as the secretary of the school where Dave taught.

Dave and Cheryl have been active members in two Nazarene churches. Dave has served on numerous boards, has taught Sunday school, and presently is a Life Group Leader. Cheryl has worked in the nursery and at one time was the church secretary.

When their children were young, Dave and Cheryl were active campers. As grandchildren grew up, camping trips continued. They were introduced to ROAM by Cheryl's brother and sister-in-law (Ed and Ruth Kile) and have enjoyed combining camping and volunteering. They have volunteered at the Lake Placid Camp and Conference Center the last three years.
